

Report on the Educational Tour to the Indian Museum, Kolkata organized by the Department of History, Government Girls' General Degree College, Kolkata on 29th November , 2024

Organized by: Department of History, Government Girls' General Degree College, Kolkata

Date: 29/11/2024

Number of Participants: 10 students, 2 teachers

Venue: Indian Museum, Kolkata

Objective:

The aim was to get first-hand experience of the museum exhibits, how they are assembled and to get idea of the working of the museum. The visit was organized as part of the SEC course of the students of 1st Semester and 3rd Semesters, the Department of History.

Outcome:

The students visited the various sections of the Museum that includes, the L. Archaeology Section, the Bharhut Gallery, the Gandhara Gallery, the Terracotta Section, the Painting Section and the Egypt Gallery. In the latter half of the day, the students attended the AMI Arts Festival - From Fields To Folk, A Journey Through Rural Heritage - organized by the Indian Museum and attended by twenty museums, archives and collectors. The students could interact with the experts regarding collection, preservation and the importance of conservation of both tangible and intangible heritage.

From
Dr Nandini Jana
Head
Department of History

Permitted
20/11/24

To
The Principal
Government Girls' General Degree College
7 Mayurbhanj Road, Kolkata-23
Ekalpur, Kolkata

Sub: Seeking permission regarding a Study Tour to the Indian Museum for joining the AMI Arts Festival celebrating the World Heritage Week.

Madam,

This is to bring to your kind notice that the Indian Museum is hosting AMI Arts Festival, From Fields to Folk: A Journey through Rural Heritage from 22nd to 29th November, 2024 for celebrating the World Heritage Week, where 20 museums will be participating. We would not like to miss this opportunity and want to take our Honours students of all the three semesters on the last day of the programme on 29.11.2024 (Friday). Since museums, popular and folk culture are essential components of their course under CCF, the students will be able to have a better understanding of the course and will be immensely benefitted by this study tour.

I, therefore, request you to kindly permit and provide necessary instructions so that the Department of History, Government Girls' General Degree College, can do the tour

Thanking You
Yours sincerely,

Nandini Jana
(Dr Nandini Jana)
Associate Professor & Head
Department of History
Government Girls' General Degree College,

GOVERNMENT GIRLS' GENERAL DEGREE COLLEGE, KOLKATA
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

NOTICE

It is hereby notified to all the students of History Department that no classes can be held on 29. 11. 2024 as the faculty and all the Honours students of the Odd Semester will be visiting Indian Museum, Kolkata to participate in the exhibition From Fields to Folk: A Journey through Rural Heritage celebrating the World Heritage Week from 22nd to 29th November, 2024.

Nandini Jana
Dr Nandini Jana 20/11/24

Head, Department of History

Date: 28.11.2024

Students interacting with Founder-Director of Coochbehar Archives, Rzhshikalpa Pal

Apurba Kumar Panda of Museum of Memories explaining to the students about the need of preservation

