

A REPORT ON: EXTENDING ENVIRONMENTAL PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES BEYOND THE CAMPUS

Introduction

Environmental sustainability and its promotion within community can be significantly amplified by extending its activities beyond the college campus. This report delves into various initiatives taken by our college to promote environmental awareness and sustainability in the broader community.

Activities performed Beyond the Campus

1) The NSS unit of the College has organized different special camps and outreach activities to promote various environmental issues.

NSS Activity:

- a) Protest against the use of plastics. A walk from Khidderpur to our college was conducted by NSS Unit-I on 28.11.2019 to protest against the use of plastics. Students of NSS also prepared posters on how to save our environment.
- b) Volunteers of NSS Unit-I of Government Girls' General Degree College joined a rally on Dengue awareness organised by the NSS unit of University of Calcutta on 11.11.2022.
- c) The volunteers of NSS Unnit-1, session 2022-23 of Government Girls' General Degree College has participated in "Clean India Program" organised by NSS, Calcutta University on 19.10.2022 at Babughat (K.M.C. ward No. 45). The motto was to clean the immersion ghat after the biggest festival of Kolkata.

2) A MOU signed with the State Institute of Physical Education for Women, Hastings House, 20B, Judges Court Road, Alipore, Kolkata-700027, that Government Girls' General Degree College will organise the sports of students, teachers and non-teaching staff minimum once in a year in the playground of the State Institute of Physical Education for Women, Hastings House.

Impact Assessment and Future Plans

Measuring the impact of these outreach activities, we plan to expand our beyond the campus activities by forging partnerships with other educational Institutions, Non-profit Organisations and Government Agencies to create a more comprehensive and sustained impact on the environment.

Conclusion

In conclusion, environmental promotional activities beyond the college campus are crucial for creating an impact on our community. Our college's initiatives ranging from community clean-up drives to social awareness campaigns shows its responsibility towards environmental sustainability for our future generations.
