Event: Observation of World Hepatitis Day

Date: 01.08.2024 and 05 08.2024

Organising Institute: Government Girls' General Degree College

NSS Unit-I of Government Girls' General Degree College in collaboration of Red Ribbon Club observed World Hepatitis Day on 01.08.2024 and 05.01.2024. On Day 1(01.08.2024), a seminar and awareness programme was organised in the college premises to make the NSS volunteers aware of this diseases, so that later they can make other people of their community aware about the same. Dr.Debjani Sengupta, Associate Professor, Department of Community Medicine, Calcutta National Medical College was present as the resource person. Dr.Sengupta is also a member of Red Ribbon Club. In her lecture, she talked about Hepatitis, its types, how it spreads, symptoms of the disease, its prevention and vaccination.

On Day 2(05.08.2024), the volunteers participated in a rally from the college to the adopted slum in Naptani Bagan. In the slum, they interacted with the residents to make them aware of Hepatitis and leaflets on it were distributed door to door. They also pasted some leaflets on the walls of their college, different shops in the locality and on the houses of the slum dwellers. Their hard work will definitely help the people of their community to fight against this disease.
